1. SESSIONS. The course meets every Monday and Wednesday from 2:30 to 3:45 from January 6 to April 30, except January 20 (MLK Holiday) and March 10 and 12 (Spring Break).

2. PREREQUISITES. You should have some basic familiarity with the Internet, but a technical background is not otherwise required.

3. FINAL EXAM. The final exam will be held May 3 at 8:30 am. The course is graded 100% based on the final exam. I intend to follow the standard law school curve. The final exam probably will be 2½ hours long with 3-4 essay questions. The exam is very practice-oriented and will emphasize your problem-solving skills. I strongly encourage you to review prior exams to understand the exam style. You can find prior exams and sample answers at my website (note that the law may have changed in the interim).

4. CASEBOOK. The course reader is the only required reading (except for any materials I distribute during the semester).

5. EMAIL LIST. I will create and maintain a course email list, which I will use to send administrative emails and other emails of interest. Therefore, I need an email address for you that you actually check. YOU MUST GET ME A WORKING EMAIL ADDRESS NO LATER THAN JANUARY 17 OR I MAY DROP YOU FROM THE COURSE. I would prefer if you email me a note from the email account you’d like me to use with the subject line “Cyberlaw—Use this Email Address.” Please include your name with the email and make sure I know you’re in this course as opposed to Copyright.

6. OFFICE HOURS. I don’t have regularly scheduled office hours, but I am on campus most days (usually between 9:30-6:30) and I invite you stop by my office (Room 110E) at your convenience. Or, email me to arrange a scheduled time to talk. I use email extensively, so I am also happy to answer questions by email.

7. ACADEMIC FREEDOM. The course necessarily requires us to discuss the full range of human behavior. If you have any concerns about topic coverage, you should see me ASAP.
