Cyberspace Law (Law 793)
Eric Goldman
Fall 2007

1. Sessions. The course meets Mondays and Wednesdays 9:00-10:15 am in Room 110 from August 20 to November 28, except September 3 (Labor Day) and October 8 (Academic Recess).

2. Grading.

   Attendance

   In-class material and discussions are crucial to this course, so I expect you to attend every class. However, because our lives are unpredictable, you have five “free passes” for unexcused absences (no need to notify me in advance). I will excuse absences only for very good cause. Your sixth unexcused absence may trigger a significant penalty to your final course grade. At my option, I may drop you from the course or give you an F upon a seventh unexcused absence.

   Final Exam

   Except for any adjustments due to unexcused absences, the final exam will constitute 100% of the course grade. I am considering making the final exam a take-home exam, probably consisting of two or three essay questions with a maximum word count. If so, I would probably distribute the exam on December 5 with a due date of December 7.

   I strongly encourage you to review my past exams to understand my exam style. You can find past exams and sample answers at my website (note the law may have changed in the interim).

3. Reader. The course reader is the only required reading (except for any materials I distribute during the semester).

4. Office Hours. I can schedule a time to speak with you at your convenience. Please email me to make an appointment. I’m also happy to talk by email.

5. On-Campus Cyberlaw Events This Semester. Mark your calendars!

   - Sept. 17: Blogging, Scholarship, and the Bench and Bar
   - Oct. 2: Trust and Privacy in Online Transactions
   - Oct. 23: Update on DMCA and Viacom v. Google Case
   - Nov. 1: Prof. Jonathan Zittrain of the Oxford Internet Institute and Harvard Law School
