Google Team,

Thank you for your help with this matter. We have contacted the webmaster for removal and the webmaster insists on obtaining a copy of our client's ID card. We offered a redacted one as well as this removal approval. Even so, the webmaster will not comply. We have explained that Google has its verification processes to protect individuals from identity theft, doxing etc.

Please let us know how to proceed in this matter. Please see if he can be explained that this claim is valid. He has been cc'd within this email.

Hello,

Thanks for reaching out to us.

In accordance with your request, Google is working to remove the following URLs for queries related to your name from versions of Google's search results for countries applying European data protection law:

https://blog.ericgoldman.org/archives/2012/06/another_failed.htm

These pages will also be removed for queries relating to your client's name to users located in your country. Please note that it may take several hours for this action to take effect. This action will not remove the content at issue from the web. You still may wish to contact the site's webmaster. Visit <https://support.google.com/websearch/answer/9109> to learn how to contact a webmaster.

With regards to the following URLs:

https://blog.ericgoldman.org/archives/2011/06/ripoff_report_g_2.htm

We did not locate your client name on this page. We have taken manual steps to prevent this page from ranking in response to queries for your name on European versions of Google's search results. These pages will also be blocked for queries relating to your name to users located in your country.

Regarding the following URLs:

<https://www.ripoffreport.com/reports/sebastian-fadi-zadi/new-york-new-york/extortionist-cheat-drug-addict-habitual-liar-new-538064>

https://www.ripoffreport.com/reports/specific_search/FADI%20ZADI

https://www.ripoffreport.com/reports/specific_search/SEBASTION%20FADI%20ZADI

A recent review of the situation showed that the specified web page is not currently displayed in our search results or has been removed. If you are still concerned about this issue, please send us the URL of the page in question, as it appears on the Google search results page.

Follow these steps to find the correct URL:

1. Type your query into the search box on Google.com and click Google Search.
2. Right-click the title of the site in question, and click Copy link address.
3. Paste the copied URL into your reply to this email.

Regards,
The Google Team
